VINO SPUMANTE ROSATO

BOLLICINE ROSÉ

The aspect reminds of a stroke of a brush with a soft color of peach blossoms, the bubbles rise numerous in an extremely delicate and persistent way, the head is creamy. The first impression in the nose is an interplay of fruity flavors and perfumes: there is an immediate scent of black currant, woodland strawberries, pomegranate and wild roses – later there is perfume of toasted bread. The entry in the mouth is fresh and pleasant and then the wine opens up to an enjoyable and increasing fruitiness.

The finish is dry with a persistent impression of small wild berries and a flowery note.

This wine is a sparkling wine for all day long and it can begin and end all kinds of social gatherings. It can be served with delicious cold cuts, seafood-salad, fried crustacean and vegetables

Eddy Furlan

As one of the most renowned experts of Italian wine Eddy Furlan is the only Italian Sommelier (he is also expert in the produce of wine as well as graduated in enology) who was nominated Chef Sommelier des Sommelier Français. Born in 1951 and in the wine business since 1976 he was General Secretary of the Association de la Sommellerie Internationale (ASI) and National President of AIS (Italian Association of Sommeliers) from '96 to '99 and Vice President AIS for six years before that period. In 1980 he classified first at the competition for the best Italian Sommelier and in 1989 he was rewarded the Bronze Medal at the World Championships for professional Sommeliers in Paris. His field of activity within the AIS nowadays is Official Taster, examiner and lecturer.
